

“Minimum Standards Apply”

This set of questions is based on Patrick’s sermon preached October 4.

1. If God can do great things through an untalented person, He can do even greater things through a person with talent. If God can accomplish much through a few, He can accomplish even more through many. It only makes sense. Do you agree?

2. The Lord said to Gideon, “You have too many men. I cannot deliver Midian into their hands, or Israel would boast against me, ‘My own strength has saved me.’” (Judges 7:2)
Under what circumstances are you most likely to forget to give God the credit?

3. Read Exodus 4:10–17 and 1 Samuel 17:20–37. We sometimes equate humility with having a low estimation of our capabilities. Is this an adequate view of humility? Can you suggest an alternate description of humility?
