

“Not by Might nor by Power”

1. Read Mark 14:1–9. In a single statement, how would you express what you think is the central message of this passage for Christians today?

“Prioritize your connection to Jesus,” is advice given in Sunday’s sermon. What habits help you stay connected to Jesus? What new (or renewed) habits would you like to adopt to enhance your relationship with the Lord?

2. In what ways does living out your trust in Jesus make you vulnerable (from a solely human point of view), exposing you to risks?
3. Share a story from your life when it was clear that success or blessing came totally from God and not at all from your own efforts or wisdom.

What healthy practices keep us reminded of our dependence on the Lord? In what ways can we acknowledge our dependence and indebtedness to the Lord?
