

“Motives for Missions”

1. What was the most interesting or exciting information you heard Sunday? How do you see that information impacting your life?
2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:11–6:2. What motives for missions do you find in this passage?

For you, which of these motives is most powerful? Why?

3. Can you think of other motives for missions not mentioned in the above passage? If possible, suggest a Bible passage that teaches the motives you list.
4. At this point in the discussion, imagine a group member commenting, “All these motives apply equally well to the lost in our own city. Why should we even think about world missions until our own communities are won for Christ?” How would you respond?

Recurring Questions

- » How have you seen God working in your life or the lives of those around you this week?
- » What prayer requests would you like to share with the group, including prayer for any spiritual struggles you may be experiencing?